PERSONNEL PLAN

A1-0 GENERAL PROVISIONS

This handbook of the Town of Rowley Personnel Plan and Schedules, has been prepared as a guideline to acquaint new and current employees with the Town of Rowley's classification plan, salary/wage plan, employee benefits and personnel policies. This handbook outlines some privileges and benefits that the Town currently offers. Also, this handbook explains certain employee responsibilities and duties as well as proper procedures. To the extent that specific provisions of this personnel handbook conflict with mandatory provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, applicable to a specific employee, or conflict with federal, state or local law, said collective bargaining agreement, or conflicting federal, state or local law shall prevail. Employees are employed as "At-Will" employees. This handbook does not alter the "At-Will" relationship between the Town and such employees, and does not grant any Town employee an expectation of continued employment, or a property interest in employment with the Town. This Personnel Plan does not create a contract for employment. Employees are required to read this handbook carefully so that they are aware of the Town's employment policies and procedures. After reading this handbook carefully, employees will be asked to sign a form stating that they have read and understood all the information that is contained herein (Appendix 1).

A1-1 Authorization. This Personnel Plan and these policies are promulgated in accordance with the authority granted by the Town's Personnel By-law, and further granted by the Town's By-law. In the case of any policy incorporated within any collective bargaining agreement, promulgation shall be as provided in the collective bargaining agreement.

A1-2 Purpose. The purpose of this plan and these policies is to establish a system of personnel administration with policies and procedures governing employment with the following principles:

- c) Employment shall be open to all segments of society, in accordance with Town of Rowley EEO, Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Policy (Appendix 2).

A10-0 OFFICE CLOSINGS

In extreme cases, the Town Administrator may order the closing, late opening or early closing of non-essential buildings such as the Town Hall, Town Hall Annex or the Library.

Messages on such closings will be left on the Town of Rowley Employee Emergency telephone line – 978-948-7068 - no later than 6:00 a.m.

In such instances, employees who are regularly scheduled to work will be paid for their regularly scheduled work hours. Employees who had previously arranged for time off, must use the leave as previously planned.

In cases of severe weather and driving conditions, where an employee feels personally at risk due to these conditions and an office closing has not been ordered, the Town will exercise flexibility in arrival and leaving times, so long as the time is unpaid or charged to personal leave, vacation leave, or compensatory time (if eligible). The employee has the opportunity to make up the missed time within five business days of occurrence.

It is the responsibility of the Supervisor/Department Head to communicate with his or her staff in these instances to ensure that there is adequate office coverage. If there is not adequate coverage, the Supervisor/Department Head must contact the Selectmen's Office to inform them that his/her Department will not be opened as scheduled.

A copy of such documentation will be a permanent part of the investigation and accident report written by the employee's Supervisor/Department Head will be maintained by the Town Administrator.

There will be no "pyramiding", combining, or duplication of benefits. In no event will more than one benefit be applied to the same hours.

B4-0 VACATION LEAVE

B4-1 Coverage - Full-time and Part-time Employees.

B4-2 Vacation leave accrual is based on the employee's date of hire (anniversary date). All vacation leave must be authorized and scheduled by the employee's Supervisor/Department Head.

B4-3 Full-time Employees are eligible for vacation leave with pay. Vacation pay is based on the number of hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work on each day of vacation taken. Vacation leave is accrued annually on the employee's date of hire (anniversary date) as follows:

Accrual Date	Regularly Scheduled weeks of vacation accrued*
after 1 year of continuous service	2 weeks
after 5 years of continuous service	3 weeks
after 10 years of continuous service	4 weeks
after 15 years of continuous service	5 weeks

*(Note: A regularly scheduled week of vacation is equal to the total amount of hours per day and days per week that the employee is normally and regularly scheduled to work.)

Note: if an employee moves from a full-time union position to a full-time non-union position, their anniversary date for the accrual of benefits is the date that they were first eligible for benefits under the union contract.

B4-4 Part-time Employees: As defined in Section A1-4e, Part-time Employees shall not be eligible for paid vacation, except as follows:

- a) Part-time Employees that were hired on or before 03/03/92, are considered to be "grandfathered" and shall be eligible for vacation leave with pay on the same basis as Full-time Employees (as provided for in Section B4-3 above), provided that such leave shall be pro-rated according to the number of weekly hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work.
- b) Employees who regularly work ten but less than twenty hours per week are eligible, after 1 year of continuous service, for one week of paid vacation provided that such leave shall be pro-rated according to the number of weekly hours the employee is regularly scheduled to work.

B4-5 Vacation leave. This leave must be taken in the (12) months immediately following the completion of accrual date as defined in Section B4-3 above, which is when the vacation leave was earned.

There will be no vacation leave carried over into the following anniversary year (12 months following the date of hire) except as may be granted as defined in Sections B4-5-1 and B4-5-2 below. Vacation carryover must first be requested in writing by the employee using the Vacation Carry-Over Request Form in Appendix #25, signed by the Town Accountant to certify the number of hours, and submitted to their Supervisor/Department Head. Vacation carryover for Department Heads must be approved by their Supervisory Board, Committee or Commission. If approved, it must be sent to the Personnel Officer for final approval as follows:

B4-5-1 Vacation carryover requests up to and including one week must be submitted to the Personnel Officer no less than two weeks before the employee's anniversary date. The carryover must be authorized in writing by the Personnel Officer.

B4-5-2 Vacation carryover requests in excess of one week must be submitted to the Personnel Officer no less than thirty days before the employee's anniversary date. The carryover must be authorized in writing by the Personnel Officer and approved by the Personnel Advisory Committee. Vacation carryover amounts are capped at one-half of the employee's current year vacation accrual.

B4-6 End of Employment. Whenever employment ends, the employee shall be paid all unused eligible vacation.

B4-7 Death. Upon the death of an employee, the beneficiary of the employee shall be paid all unused eligible vacation.

B4-8 Other uses of vacation leave. At the discretion of the Personnel Officer, sick leave used in excess of that accrued may be charged to vacation leave.

B4-9 Additional Vacation Day. A vacation day, taken as part of a vacation week that falls on a legal holiday, will be credited with the holiday rather than a vacation day. That vacation day can then be taken at a later date according to policy.

B4-10 There will be no "pyramiding", combining or duplicating of benefits. In no event will more than one benefit coverage be applied to the same hours.

B4-11 When an employee's hours are increased at the beginning of the fiscal year, their previously accrued vacation balance will be adjusted to reflect their increased hours according to the example below:

- Employee's work hours change from 30 to 40 per week. Employee has two weeks (60 hours) of accrued vacation prior to the increase in hours. An adjustment to accrued vacation hours is made so that when the employee starts working 40 hours per week on July 1st they still have two weeks of vacation as follows:
 - $(\text{new \# hours worked per week}) / (\text{old \# hours worked per week}) * \text{accrued hours of vacation}$

$= (40/30) * 60 = 80 \text{ hours or } 2 \text{ weeks of vacation at new } 40 \text{ hour per week schedule}$

B5-0 PERSONAL DAYS

B5-1 Coverage – All Full-time Employees. The Dedicated Personal Leave Day as cited in B5-4-1 covers all Full-time and Part-time Employees who are regularly scheduled to work the day after the Thanksgiving Day holiday.

B5-2 Based on the fiscal year and on July 1st annually, employees will be credited with Personal Leave hours that are equivalent to the number of hours that an employee regularly works in one week.

Employees who commence employment after July 1st will be credited with pro-rated Personal Leave hours based on the number of days remaining in the fiscal year. Note, the leave granted will be rounded up to the full quarter hour.

B5-3 Such personal leave must be scheduled and approved by the Supervisor/Department Head and used by the end of the fiscal year. Personal days may not be carried over to the following fiscal year and may not be submitted for payment.

B5-4 Dedicated Personal Leave Day for the day after Thanksgiving.
The intent of this policy is to give the day after Thanksgiving off to employees regularly scheduled to work that day.

B5-4-1 Full-time and Part-time Employees regularly scheduled to work the day after Thanksgiving will be credited with Personal Leave hours that are equivalent to the normal number of hours worked on Fridays, up to an eight-hour maximum to be used to take the day after Thanksgiving off.

B5-4-2 Employees called back to work for emergencies on the day after Thanksgiving will be credited with Personal Leave hours equivalent to the number of hours worked that day for the emergency, up to an eight-hour maximum. Such credited personal leave hours must be used by the end of the fiscal year.

B6-0 COMPENSATORY TIME

During much of the year as part of their job responsibilities, managerial, supervisory and technical professional employees may be required to work significantly more than their regular weekly hours. To partially offset the additional hours worked, employees exempt from the Fair Labor Standard Act or who are otherwise not eligible for overtime (employees who work 20 or more hours per week, but less than 40 hours per week) may be eligible for compensatory time. Supervisors/Department Heads are responsible for authorizing their employees to accrue and use compensatory time.

B6-1 Accrual. Eligible employees may accrue up to a two week maximum of compensatory time during the fiscal year, on an hour-for-hour earning basis. A work week is defined as the equivalent to the scheduled number of hours for the employee as shown on the Wage/Salary Action Form. For example; if an employee's regularly scheduled workweek is 33 hours, then the employee may not be eligible for more than 66 hours of compensatory time.

- B6-2 Use. Extra hours worked beyond the two week maximum accrual are not subject to additional compensation. In the event that an employee has exceeded the annual accrual cap, Supervisors/Department Heads may adjust an employee's work schedule so that the hours worked do not exceed the employee's regular work week. Compensatory time may not be carried over from one fiscal year to the next. However, compensatory time earned during the last fourteen (14) days of the fiscal year shall be used within the first sixty (60) days of the next fiscal year. Compensatory time accrued may not be submitted for payment upon an employee's separation from employment.

B7-0 SICK LEAVE

B7-4 Use of sick leave. Sick leave may only be used for an employee's personal or immediate family member's illness or injury. Note: if an employee moves from a full-time union position to a full-time non-union position, their anniversary date for the accrual of benefits is the date that they were first eligible for benefits under the union contract.

B7-4-1 The intent of Section B7-4 is to provide authorized leave with pay to an employee that is (truly) incapable of providing job related duties due to their personal or their immediate family member's sickness or injury. Therefore, if any Supervisor/Department Head and/or the Personnel Officer has any reason for concern that such leave is not being used for sickness or injury, then the following will apply:

B7-4-1-a Such leave and payment thereof will not be authorized or granted if such absence is taken under any of the following conditions:

1. to extend weekends
2. to extend vacation periods
3. taken preceding and/or following an observed holiday

B7-4-1-b Further, such Supervisor/Department Head and/or Personnel Officer may require that an acceptable "certification of illness" for single or multiple day absence (as provided for in Section B7-8) be supplied to the Personnel Officer if any suspected abuse of the benefit occurs.

B7-5 Sick Day Accumulation Cap. An employee shall be credited annually (anniversary date) with the unused portion of leave granted under this Section up to a maximum of two hundred (200) days.

B7-6 Extension of sick leave. Authorized, un-paid sick leave may, at the discretion of the Supervisor/Department Head and the Personnel Officer, be granted to an employee after all of their sick leave and vacation leave have been used.

B7-8 Certification of illness. Any employee absent beyond three (3) consecutive work days shall be required to submit a physician's certificate of illness to the Supervisor/Department Head prior to re-entering the work force. Such certificate of illness may also be required after a series of repeated absences as determined by the employee's Supervisor/Department Head.
